

Teresa Maria Da Silva Bravo

President of the MAT

Judge Teresa Bravo, PHD in International and European Criminal Law is a Judge at the Asian Development Bank Administrative Tribunal, Judge of the Inter-American Development Bank Administrative Tribunal and Chairperson of the EBRD- Administrative Review Committee.

From July 2016 until June 2023, she was the full –time Judge of the UNDT in Geneva and in 2019 was President of the same Tribunal. She is an experienced adjudicator in labor law and international administrative law and Editor in Chief of a collective work related to Judicial Review in International Administrative Law to be published within the next months.

In 2022 she has conducted a review of the Internal Justice system of the World health Organization in Geneva.

She was also a lecturer in the Post-Graduation Program in Labor and Social Security Law, in NOVA Law School, University of Lisbon, in 2014 and 2015.